Site & Supplies: Each participant will be provided with space at a table and a tray with an entry number for slow cooker or crock-pot. Participants must supply their own electrical cord. Central Florida Prep will provide tasting/sample cups and tasting/sample spoons.

Participant Rules:

- Participant will be provided with a table, an electrical outlet and tray to set the crock-pot or slow cooker on top.
- Each participant must provide his or her own slow cooker or crock-pot (at least 5 quart or larger), ladle or large spoon for serving and an extension cord.
- The chili must be made ahead of time.
- Participants must provide a copy of recipe to cover all dietary concerns. Winners recipes may possibly be used in future publication of CFP cookbook.

- Chili may represent one of these categories; vegetarian, chicken, turkey, beef, venison or pork. Recipe may contain beans and or a combination of poultry and meat. Chilies will be labeled accordingly.
- Chili may be mild or moderately spicy keeping in mind that this is for the general public and must meet the tastes of many. We are providing pepper sauces for those who like their chili spicier.
- Participants must be aware of the liability for the wholesomeness and safety of their chili, as it will be consumed. Pot must be covered and either, made that day or the day before, then refrigerated and reheated in time for edibility at 4:00 p.m. Set up begins at 3:30 p.m.
- Contestants are anonymous! Once you have checked in, received your number and set your station, you may roam freely and enjoy the festival. Winners will be announced just before 7:00 p.m.
- Sampling is limited to the sample cups provided.
