

Summer Reading for Middle and High School Students

While we encourage the reading of many books during the summer, we require the reading of the following novels for each of the listed grade levels. Although there is no formal assignment to be submitted upon the first day of school, students must be prepared to take a quiz over the assigned novel the first week of school. In addition, we will be using the novels as the basis for writing assignments at the beginning of the new academic year.

- Grade 6 – Wonder by R.J. Palacio
- Grade 7 – Bystander by James Preller
- Grade 8 – Trash by Andy Mulligan
- Grade 9 through 12 – The Kite Runner by Khaled Hossein
